Verse 1:

Good morning world - (it's) time to wake up // to a brand new day, feeling great - yup! // that's right, baby, show 'em what you're made of // and I'm a do the same, put my feelings on the paper // but before I transcend the limitations // allow me to send an invitation // to (all of) my enemies and friends who've been awaiting //
this moment, (I want to) thank you for your patience // thank you for providing the energy // that I need to survive in this industry // forward with a smile 'cause I'm living free // finally, now that I'm on a winning streak //
you better believe that I've paid my do's // got caught (up) in the storm but I made it through // then I came back in my favorite shoes //
now I'm a let 'em talk about it while I make my moves...
(C'mon!!)//

Chorus:

This is where the journey starts //
keep on following your hearts //
maybe this is just a dream //
but it's my way of living free //
if this is where the story ends //
I have no regrets my friend //
maybe this is just a dream //
but it's my way of living free... //

Verse 2:

True story - You see, I went from the stoop to the stage
//
stepped up, grabbed the mike and it blew 'em away // exceeded every expectation that they had // prejudiced fools with their heads in the sand // were forced to wake up to a new beginning // of unchained melodies, moving rhythms // and a star shining to fill the vacancy // in the hearts of the people, it's plain to see // that I've got my own plans and ambitions // not sure what they are, but a man on a mission //

nonetheless, always handling my business // never going to quit... Now can I get a witness? // nowadays I just lock and load // and I'm a chase that bread 'til my pocket's full // they told me everything I wanted was impossible //
but I just kept dreaming of rock'n'roll. Let's go!... //

Chorus.

Bridge:

I'ma do my thang thang - I'ma do my thang... //

Verse 3:

Just when you got sick at the thought of rap //
I came back with something sick and I brought it back // in the days, took you back to the days of cooking rap // stumble down a crooked path, forward without looking back //
please support an endangered species // of hungry artists and play the CD // take it all in, sit back, let it marinate //
beautiful fairytale told from the barricades //
beautiful fairytale told from the barricades... //
