Came home last night, lost my mind
And the world felt twice the size
And my head felt like it didnt belong to me

Now SOS, I'm lost at sea
Let the waters just take me
And what happens now
'cause nothing seems clear anymore

Does the feeling come to you?
'cause it's hitting on me too
Is it love or are we just falling too soon
Whatever happens I don't care
'cause I know just what you're giving me,
You're giving me, honey

(chourds)
Somebody love me now
'cause my feet don't hit the ground
And I need some helping out
'cause I had it all before but now it really don't matter
Please darling take me down
'cause I'm lost inside a clowd
Take me home safe and sound
'cause I had it all before but now it really don't matter
anymore

Red eyes, lows, highs, in my life
It just turned into a ride
Keeps going round
And I can't get off of it
Settle down, don't
Make a sound 'cause you're loosing yourself now
You're running out of time

Somebody love me now
'cause my feet don't hit the ground
And I need some helping out
'cause I had it all before but now it really don't matter
Please darling take me down
'cause I'm lost inside a crowd
Take me home now safe and sound

'cause I had it all before but now it really don't matter
Had it all before but now it really don't matter
Had it all before but now it really don't matter anymore

Something's cutting me like a knife
Something's taking my appetite for life
So don't you try to bring me down
Something's cutting me like a knife
Something's taking my appetite for life
So don't you try to bring me
So don't you try to bring me down

Whatever happens I don't care
'cause I know just what you're giving me
You're giving me, honey

Somebody love me now
'cause my feet don't hit the ground
And I need some helping out
'cause I had it all before but now it really don't matter
Please darling take me down
'cause I'm lost inside a crowd
Take me home safe and sound
'cause I had it all before but now it really don't matter
anymore
Really don't matter anymore
