It's back this time
Only it's harder
Take time rewind
You could give a about this

Look at what you've been through
Look at what you've pulled me through
Man somehow this one tells me
This could take a lot from me

If it's human nature
For us to walk in circles
Then I must be the king
Of wrong turns, wrong things to say

Long after this is over
You'll want to give in give back
What you think has been dealt to you
And this is what you've been through

Lost but not forgotten
Down but far from out
I could use a change of key

And I'm back this time
Only I'm angrier
Take time for yourself
