(Genesis 6:1-9 and Genesis 7)

Chorus

Noah was a knower, he knew the heart of God
Noah was a knower, to build the wooden ark x 2
All the animals crawling on the ground couldn't help that man had fallen God looked down with an awful frown, knew he must bring lots of water Drown the sins there to be found
Man had disobeyed his calling
There is someone who is holy
He must work to save the animals

Chorus repeat

Noah was praying, just hanging around shut his face from all who'd fallen God said build the Ark right now, save the animals from the water Noah had faith in God's command even though he'd never seen thunder Got to working with his family building the Ark
Chorus repeat
100 years of banging tools
Laughed at by his neighbours scorn
40 days and 40 nights
Smelly animals all around

Middle bit

God's calling is always a challenge
It may not be what you would seem But following his ways through life ends up leading to the mountain top Heard the animals two by two Chooks and cows and kangaroos
Close the doors as rain comes down
All his neighbours start to drown
As the boat began to rock all the sin was washed away 100 years of real hard work
Noah sat down and had a coffee
Finally the waters went Noah was on the mountain top
The rainbow came as a new promise
God would show his mercy often

Middle bit repeat
Chorus repeat
