tell me how did it all begin tell me was it right or a sin to give my heart to someone like you to give it all what did i have to lose tell me how did i endure so much pain tell me where was my sun after rain how did i let it go this far now that i realised who you are but i fell in love, no one to blame i fell in love and i'm not the same i fell in love don't care what they say i fell in love, in love with you

tell me where to we go from here tell me how much more pain shall i bare give my life to something that ain't true tell me now it's all up to you tell me will it be lost or my gain tell me do you even want to change after all those years you put me through can't believe i want to be with you i fell in love, no one to blame

tell me is there something wrong with me if i could just erase you is there something (?) still longing to touch you my mind says go but my heart won't say no i fell in love and in love i'm not the same

i fell in love don't care what they say

i fell in love, in love with you
