Wake up the day and feel on the ground of teeth from the fire lily. this antequated, Quintessential; observe the mercy killing. choking the student. chewing my tongue.
Become the perfect killer. conviction lost so you'll read about it in the paper tomorrow.
Unclear solutions unrecognized. the total meaning lost inbetween. where is my guarantee That you'll be with me in my arms tomorrow? I'm not the bloodroot. you're not an anvil In the criminal mind. this operation drives substitution, breaking achilles heal. one Day you'll learn that you can't change the things you hate the most.
