Light the bed on fire
If you want it clean.
You've made more love on it
With everyone but me. I don't have much of an appetite
But don't you get up from the table.
I'm not done talking to you.
Pack your bags and leave.
Time to kill the children.
Are they even mine?
What were you thinking?
What were you thinking you common whore?
I gave you everything.
You've shattered my reality.
Time to start again. you're not going anywhere,
Not when I hold the knife.
Say goodbye
And think again.
What you love those children?
Now watch them die.
That's what you deserve.
Say goodbye.
