Capture it, de-humanize it.
You nurture it, you devour it.
Promise it, you lie to it.
And you doubt in it.
See yourself in it.

Twist the knife, watch as it dies.

Be loved by it, but ignoring it.
You feel the hate in it, escape from it.
Laugh at it, ridicule it.
Misunderstand, spit at it.

Twist the knife, watch as it dies.

Twist the knife, watch as it dies.
Steal away it's life,
Twist the knife, watch as it dies.
Untouched my it's cries.

Twist the knife, watch as it dies.

Twist the knife.
To the very bone.
Twist the knife.
Steal away it's life.
Twist the knife.
Until it's dead and gone.

Disrespect it and deceive it.
Underestimate, be scared of it.
Kill the faith, kill the love.
And turn your back, walk away.

Twist the knife, watch as it dies.

Twist the knife, watch as it dies.
Steal away it's life,
Twist the knife, watch as it dies.
Untouched my it's cries.

Twist the knife, watch as it dies.

Twist the knife.
To the very bone.
Twist the knife.
Steal away it's life.
Twist the knife.
Until it's dead and gone.

Twist the knife.
Ignore it's pain.
You steal away it's life.
You cut the last remaining vein.
