I'm giving up, nobody believes me I've had enough of this stupid misleading world of corruption, stupid assumptions the girl that I'm stuck with blames me for everything, oh yeah for all I know you are with him but everything is fine all I know is everything is too fucking bad, I will never feel sad for the pain that you feel is not real you're lost and afraid, all your friends are so lame I do not care what they have to say

I'm saving up and one day I will leave here I'll fly away and wake up right next to you the twilight zone, sick and never ending I'll find a home, 72 inches underground
