

Jumping Bomb Angel "Appolonia James"

The old welcome line started sinking and crews made their plans for retreating the pilgrims asked their usual questions and lay down to start their confessions and spread them down to me they shouted with no leg to stand on and begged for the rules they were raised on walked in and I found them waiting to bring out the charges they were saving and pass them down on me

"you belong down at the amateur hour" and I'll wear it like a badge of honor pass it back to me
