You could ask me to die for you I would I do
You could ask me to cry for you I would I do

But I must confess to you
If you ask me to live without you
I would not to do I would not to do

And if you ask me to dream with you I would I do
If you ask to make love with you I would I do
But I must confess to you
If you ask me to live without you
I would not to do I would not to do

So you may ask me to lie for you I would I do
I do almost everything for you I would I do
But I must confess to you
If you ask me to live without you
I would not to do I would not to do
But I must confess to you
If you ask me to live without you
I would not to do I would not to do
