Remember the last time we've met each other at seasons?
I was the one desperate and you couldn't give a damn reason I still don't know why the hell you hurt me so bad in that very day
But I promised myself to make you regret for this in my own way

And I hope you're listening this song right now...Right now right now Because...

I know its evil but it makes me feel so fine
It's wrong but I love when I see you crying
Your eyes begging me for another chance
Whoa yeah I finally got my sweet revenge

Every time I look back I'm sure you were just such a waste of time
Well you loser now we are going to be partners in this freak crime
The same number of tears you made me shed I want you to know
I will make you pay but with tears of blood wherever you will go

And I hope you're listening this song right now...Right
now right now
Because...

I know its evil but it makes me feel so fine
It's wrong but I love when I see you crying
Your eyes begging me for another chance
Whoa yeah I finally got my sweet revenge
