Lately lady up on a hill I stood so still thinking
Maybe you hate me for doing my thing
Alright okay I could say everything is so safely
Alright okay I do it with grace

With the key to the city
It's a beautiful thing
The strength of strings

Sometimes always put it to bed but it's half measure
Work shy worn out I do it again
Lunar shoulder I could put anything to the altar
Alright okay I do it with grace

With the key to the city
It's a beautiful thing
The strength of strings
