We're @ a crossroads, what you gonna do
I'm headed to the station, where are u gonna go
U know this train don't stop for anyone
But it stopped for u

Can u tell the truth
I saved time for u
Can you tell the truth
I saved it all for u

She hates my songs, I detest her fucking friends
She loves matinees, I'm a late night type of guy
U know this train don't stop for anyone
But it stopped for u
Can u tell the truth
I saved time for u
Can you tell the truth
I saved it all for u

I saved it all, I saved it all etc

We're @ a crossroads now, what you gonna do
