Just Another Face

This is the last of my many failed attempts to write a last song about you

Might not succeed but have to try for myself

I gotta let you go though my hearts says otherwise

Oh no, you're just another face in the crowd

Fly fly fly(2x)

Higher than you've ever flown, I know I'll miss you

Love love love(2x)

Deeper than you've ever loved, I know, u'll miss me.

Brought you back to the first place I met you, in my home,

Tears in your eyes attests that it was real

We completed that circle though caught me by surprise

Oh no, you're just another face in the crowd
