I like to still think that I can find compassion, in this ticking-time bomb, tell me that its tru I like to still think that u can look at me as a man & not a colour, tell me, IÂ'm not dreaming I like to still think that, what I say, what I do, can coexist, or is it just one big lie Tell me, Can we, tell me, can we, tell me, can weeeeeeee

The world need u, just like it needs me
My hand feeds u just like u feed me
The world needs u, just like it needs me
My hand feeds you, just like u feed me

I like to still think that its ok to bring offspringÂ's into this world, are you thinking of them I like to still think I can be all IÂ'm meant to be, even this loss of job, donÂ't cut me down I like to still think that the woman in Nigeria, can be, divorced with kids, and still found attractive, too much to ask
weeeeeeeeeee
