saw your face, i saw your hair i felt that i had to stop and stare so beautiful, mysterious i hardly could contain my lust fragile heart, beating fast how long would this moment last inside my head, a sudden light it felt just like a love at first sight my sweet akasha, come be my lover skin like snow, soft and fair i thought you were the only one there pretty smile, an angel's face your movements were so full of grace lovely eyes, radiant blue i built the nerve to come talk to you we sat down and had a chat (then) you went away but never came back

your eyes are like the azure midnight they raise the fiend that's buried deep inside i think of you , my obsession starts i want to taste you and spread your legs apart i'd kill to spend a night with you come to me now, and make my dreams come true i swear i'll make you cum, worship your supple flesh,
(and) fuck you until i'm numb
