feat. Trae Tha Truth

[Hook]

When they gonn make that Bentley truck
When they gonn make that Bentley truck

When they gonn make that Bentley truck
My click full of them riders
So my Bentley coupe just ain't enough
Car full of bad bitches
They dtf, so that's down to fuck

When they gonn make that Bentley truck
My goon squad we thick as fuck
So unless you really gonn use it
I suggest you keep that semi tucked Bd, I'm thick as fuck, came up, but I ain't come for much
Anticipation, preparation,
That's how a nigga got good love
Ah, and I can't forget about all my fam and friends
That's praying for me
And my fans all'
You would think I was a king, all the love they show me
Hah, they ride for me, my nigga cj here die for me
It's years ahead, but when I'm dead
Even my fucking enemies gonn cry for me
And hopefully by then my so called friends are telling lies homie
Talking about I owe thee, what? Don't even try homie
In 08 I had a rap, in 2010 I bought a golden jacket
And I cope the mac and I bought a range
That's progress, I thank god for that so
