If you want my advice
Brush him aside and take advantage of the moment
Say it
Don't be afraid

Come on
Please take me please to the highest waterfalls in the world
Would you say I'm a beautiful girl
I got out of my relationship
Previously injured looking forward to you
You are my impending resolution
How much would it take for you to get me
You're acting like a total tease
My ex says you want to cover me in diamonds

Don't be afraid to play your cards right
Don't be afraid to set your eyes on somethin' that's right
You know down deep inside
What you want girl
So go get it while the timing's right

You better

Love em and leave em
Tease em and tease em
Twist em and snap em
Bend em and please em
Make em all yours
Make em fall for you tonight
You're the girl
You're in charge
Don't be so shy

If you want my advice
If you want my advice
If you want my advice
If you want my advice

The voice in my head says I should take an aggressive approach

So I tell him I like a man with an abstract take on his life
I'm desiring all the prospects you can give to me
A fantasy provided you live up to hype
Come here boy
Feel it in my hand
Adore my vicious moves
God I want to show you a brave new world
Come on hear my views on religion

Don't be afraid to play your cards right
What you want girl

You better

Love em and leave em
Twist em and snap em
Make em all yours
You're the girl
You're in charge

If you want my advice
If you want my advice
If you want my advice
If you want my advice

The voice in my heads says it's necessary
For me to follow her advice
I try not to hear her
But she bumps into me
Tells me you better pay attention
Or think twice

You better

Love em and leave em
Twist em and snap em
Bend em and please em
Make em all yours
Make em fall for you tonight
You're the girl
You're in charge
Don't be so shy

Love em and leave em
Twist em and snap em
Bend em and please em
Make em all yours
Make em fall for you tonight
You're the girl
You're in charge
Don't be so shy

If you want my advice
If you want my advice
If you want my advice
If you want my advice
If you want my advice
If you want my advice
If you want my advice
If you want my advice
