He looks at me
And I look at him
And I ask him how did we get to this place
And he says with a smile on his face
We are two killers living a lie

You wouldn't believe me if I told you
On paper it doesn't make sense
For a girl to be so confused
So fucked up in the head
But she wanted it all
And the more she was pressured
The more she murdered men's hearts in the evenings
Killed their emotions at breakfast
She said don't get any ideas my friend
Tonight's just for once
I'm using your body for pleasure for fun
And after you kiss me
When the moment is gone
Move on with yourself please
Cause your moment is done
I hate to be vicious
So cold hearted so wrong
To screw up your heart
Another victim gone home in a coffin
But I have to do it
Give in to pressure
I do it with tears in my heart
Leading a double life as la chica despiadada

But she finally met her match
In a man who had got some experience
Killing women lovers all in the past
And when she met him
He met her
They could tell right away
They were both killers on the loose
Made for each other
A life of killing sprees

It's crazy but their chemistry clicked
A ying and a yang come together

They understood
The secret bond on the run
Together they lived a lie
But only halfway a pose
Because they killed together so well
The lie became partially true
And again and again
He lived a lie with her
And at night he would sometimes hold her
Take her aside and
Whisper in her ear
In order to live a lie my dear
Remember it must be partially true

She knew no man would ever trust her
He'd be living in fear
So she sought out a man who also murdered for thrills
He didn't speak a word when they met
But she told him in a second she knew
And he knew in her demeanor
She liked to murder all her lovers as well

But she finally met her match
In a man who had got some experience
Killing women lovers all in the past
And when she met him
He met her
They were both killers on the loose
Made for each other

It's crazy but their chemistry clicked
A ying and a yang come together
They understood
Because they killed together so well
And again and again
Take her aside and
Whisper in her ear
In order to live a lie my dear
Remember it must be partially true

Cried herself to sleep every night
She cried herself to sleep
After every crime

Asking it is why when everything seems so right
I can never have true love
The few men I set aside
Because I care
Whose emotions I spare
Why can't I have them
Why can't I have their true love
I can only open myself to men like myself
The liars, the criminals, the murdering men
Only we understand
We're so different
Yes we are
And yet so alike
Partners in crime forever
Together we live a lie
The one that's only halfway a pose
Because we kill together so well
Our lie becomes partially true
He's a butterfly that wants to be free
And together we freed each other
After we grow tired of the crime spree at night
And he loves me for me

Oh don't you girl
Better be careful in the process
Of killing with this man
You're harming yourself again a little bit more

Whatever
I don't care
Cause every time I stab a man to death
And blood on the sheets everywhere
I feel a little bit better about myself because

It's crazy but their chemistry clicked
And again and again
In order to live a lie my dear

My lover tonight now wants to stab me again

And this time I know it
I know that deep inside
As much as he loves me
As much he's mine
He's gonna kill me for real
He's done living a lie
I've lived a short life
My lover yeah
He's gonna kill me tonight
Remember he says
In order to live a lie
It must be partially true
