Sweater for a Summers Day by Know Your Knot!

Intro

verse

Im here, here cause i want to be Don't rely on me no dont rely on Being around when the weather is heating up There's always time to get hot and sweaty
You know what to do Fit in with me or I'll replace you Don't let me get cold when its chilly
I'll leave this city behind There's something to wear out there.

pre-chorus

The weathers changed and your getting clingy
I need space. I need time to breathe Elastic is stretching, this hoodie is torn
Your not what Im looking for to keep me warm
When I look out the window the grass is green
The weather is changing again
Your back in rotation. A Winter flirtation.
When Summer is here then Im gone

chorus

When your on top of me it brightens up my day
You please me in every single way
Then you mess it up when you get messy
When your on top of me it brightens up my day
You please me in every single way
Then mess it all up when you get messy

verse

I think Im having second thoughts
I'd trade my old jeans for some shorts
The weather is hot and Im feeling the heat
The sun is blazing over me Im in the market for something new not something borrowed or something blue If you think you're the perfect outfit let me try you on tonight

pre-chorus

The weathers changed and your getting clingy
I need space. I need time to breathe
Elastic is stretching, this hoodie is torn
Your not what Im looking for to keep me warm
When I look out the window the grass is green
The weather is changing again
Your back in rotation. A Winter flirtation.
When Summer is here then Im gone

when your on top of me it brightens up my day
you please me in every single way
then you mess it up when you get messy
when your on top of me it brightens up my day
you please me in every single way then you mess it all up when you get messy

Breakdown

DONT TELL ME WHAT TO WEAR
I'll make my own decisions
DONT TELL ME WHAT TO WEAR
I always had good taste
DONT TELL ME ITS TIME FOR CHANGE
I could wear this over and over again
Im freezing my ass off over here

2x Outro

This is why it never works you expect me to change my plans When Im already running late Just to iron out our problems
