The Getaway Anthem by Know Your Knot!

Let's Get Away!!!!

This could be our story of better times we had
We were forever. The world was at our feet
We had it all, until it caved in on us
Barely breathing, we knew our time, our time was up

And from the ashes we will rise
Like a phoenix from a fire
We'll let it burn
We'll hand this city to the night
In the rubble they will see
See the footprints of you and me
We'll get away
There will be no bodies to hold us back

You grab my arm, we take off running to the night
No need to pack our bags. Tonight we travel light
You grab my arm, we take off running to the night
No need to pack our bags, we'll put up a fight!

Let's take the back roads, we'll leave this city tonight
I see your eyes closed, your holding on so tight
Let's get away. I don't want to be here anymore
I see potential in the skies. Let's leave before the sun rise

Now as the pages turn, the story will tell
Of how to day light dreamers, converted make believers
Took on the world. They worked through the night
Blood sweat and tears just to get it right
Took on the world. They built a city of light
The grass was greener on the other side

Let's take the back roads, we'll leave this city tonight
I see your eyes closed, your holding on so tight
Let's get away. I don't want to be here anymore
I see potential in the skies. Let's leave before the sun

WE FIGHT THROUGH THE NIGHT
To build a brand new city
Just to get it right
WE FIGHT THROUGH THE NIGHT
Hear the people scream
WE FIGHT THROUGH THE NIGHT
It's because of you and me

So reach out for us. So reach out for us. So reach out for us
We will never let you go, No we'll never let you down

Let's take the back roads, we'll leave this city tonight
I see your eyes closed, your holding on so tight
Let's get away. I don't want to be here anymore
I see potential in the skies. Let's leave before the sun

And to those who had their doubts we'll pay a visit to your town
We'll bring the matches, your the fuse, we'll hand the city to the night
And to those who had their doubts we'll pay a visit to
your town
We are the matches, your the fuse, we'll hand the city to the night
