Greet the Obliterator
He's here to end your life
Coldblooded - hardhearted
His ways are the ways of destruction just for the sake of destruction Dark grey smoke enshroud the sun from countless fires in the distance Of fear the ground is trembling cries and screams all fill the silence
Total obliteration is coming this way
If you believe in gods, it's times to pray
Feel the warm winds growing warmer
Sence the smell of sulphur fires
The earth is in flames - the soil turns black
The manifestation of a failed world spring and summer, greet the fall
...now it's time to end it all
This is the last day of the human race
Dies ater -
...dies illa solvet saeclum in favilla
Give 'em hell
Obliterator - Give 'em hell
(The black day -
...this day all of mankind shall be burnt to ashes)
