Look twice Johnny
She lies there naked and still
Her gaze is blank and cold
It's a look that could kill
Look down, Johnny
She could've been up on the shelf
So pretty, now ugly
Too bad you wanted her for yourself
You raped her and abused her, Johnny
And then hit her on the head
You little son-of-a-bitch
Now she's lying there dead
Look twice, Johnny
You thought she's still alive
She couldn't lie still for a second
You took all she could give
You know women are coy
Johnny, Johnny my boy
You didn't have to kill her
You son-of-a-whore
She was a fucking woman and not a toy
