(Yeah, yeah, yeah)

[Verse 1]

If I really look hard enough, back to my hay days I could say that happiness ain't far away, stayed out of harms way

Never caught a case when, I seen the rats running

Man, I never thought to race them, out of place

Sore thumb in the scenery, my brain wave is Tune to a different frequency, didn't mean to be

Be so infectious, never think about you

I was only being selfish, things I do I would come to regret 'em

and the demons try to keep me down

But I wont never let them, I won't sweat 'em

Sorry for the pain, you might even say that my loss is your gain (Your gain)

A lot has changed over the course of several years

Went from uncontrollable laughter to shedding tears

Matter fact I seen better days, But I gotta let 'em play

Cause my life is a movie, I can't edit them

Scenes from unforgettable dreams, vision of me

Spitting image on a television screen

If you listen you will see, and if you here you know

This undeniable flow from a higher source, and you know

Sometimes when a close friend dies, its sign just to show you that you're alive, so live it to the fullest si

(Yeah, yeah)

Live it to the fullest si

(Yeah, yeah)

Shouts to W.N.A, Merk 1 and Rune had to let them ashes fly

Across the sand dune this year, bad news comes in three's

I hear my grand father passed too. (Pass too)

On a lighter note, a new life inside my older sister

6 month coming her stomach is getting so much bigger

Sofia when I see you, you should have no fear

You got aunties and uncles to hold you dear, right there (Right there)

(Yeah, right there, right there)

[Chorus]

If I really look hard enough, back to my hay day
I could say happiness, ain't so far away (Far away, aint so far away)
If I really look hard enough, back to my hay day
I could say happiness, ain't so far away
(Far away)
(Nah it aint so far away)
(Yeah)

And when you see the sunrise you will squint your eyes
These are God's fingerprints, in the sky
And the clouds move slow and the air so dirty, cause the people don't care
So I worry about you, you, you. I worry about you, you, you

(Yeah)

[Chorus 2]

Young world keep you out of harm's way,
And know that happiness, isn't so far away
Young world keep you out of harm's way,
And know that happiness, ain't so far away
Young world keep you out of harm's way,
And know that happiness, ain't so far away
