{SAMPLE - Another Day}

[Verse 1]

Really, I can't complain about the 27 years I was put up on this planet, when heaven is so near Looking up at the galaxy, see my path is real clear now Can't see nothing but the sun bath beaming down,
One last breathe before, I breathe it out Walking around town like I own it
It cries when I leave it now
Can't help it, paradise is always calling me
To talk to her I would journey on an odyssey
So please walk with me, I show you how to paint the city red
While I'm at it, catch some air beneath the wing spread Fed five thousand when I broke that bread.
See the beauty in the pedals, even though the stinkin'
rose is dead
Shed light thru the sunrays
The time to shimmer is right now, so don't wait another day
(Don't wait another day)

[Chorus]

{SAMPLE - Another day has pass me by}
(Paradise, paradise, paradise, paradise)
Paradise is right, where you wanna be
Really no reason, why we can't live in harmony {SAMPLE - Living in the sun, another day you seek, Paradise life
relaxing
Another day in paradise, Paradise life relaxing}

[Verse 2]

Blue skies, white beaches of sand
The sort of scene that leaves a grown man, speechless
Holding hands, leaping through the galaxy to ether
She laughs when I tease her, cry when I leave her So every time I try to reach her, thru the telephone receiver

She tells me she don't like it, and I tell her me neither
My sites on her features, with eyes like diamonds
She could probably find the truth, thru the lies of a preacher, So tell them non-believers
He speaks thru your action, and the last line you spoke
Last night on the fly, man it had to be a keeper
She said the world needs more lovers, more teachers
I said understand but its not real to me, cause the people don't see what, what you see through your peepers
She said it's so sad, and I said I understand But once we land in paradise, only light is going to reach us.
Right through your speakers. (Right through your speakers)

[Chorus]

{SAMPLE - Another day has pass me by}
(Paradise, paradise, paradise, paradise)
Paradise is right, where you wanna be
Really no reason, why we can't live in harmony

Verse 3

Paradise is right where you wanna be
Really no reason why we can't live in harmony
You and me together forever, is what she telling me
And I show you to the sun, if you follow me So I journeyed on an odyssey, all of me, naked in the cloud
Thinking that, that's how it's ought to be, as we both Laying down beneath the palm tree sparkles in her eyes
Paradise is what she promise me (Promise me, promise me, promise me, promise me...)
