Yes, yes, yes
Yes, yes, yes
Stay fresh like, a head lettuce
Yes, yes
Yea, One, Yeah!

[Verse 1]

Fresh out of the cocoon
Or Should I say the womb?
Twenty Six of July
Arrived a little too soon...
Had no name, they called me baby
I was shining like the moon
Throughout the 80's, drove my folks crazy
Sent me to my room
Had a lot of time to think
Drawing pictures on the wall
A wild thing
It's obvious they had an artist for a child
Couldn't calm me, had a temper
Entering my youth
With the very same freshness
When I enter in the booth
I remember I was two
When I first had a dream, I was sick
Daddy screaming, cause I did a bad thing
Broke the rules, born to be a King...
Bored of all the rituals
Swore I'd use my force
To make the music more original
(Yeah!)

So before I leave my physical
Give you something fresh
For your spiritual
Yes, I stay deaf
To the ear of those, who couldn't hear a miracle
Spoken by the grand imperial
When it's leaking through your speakers
So slow...
(So slow, So slow, So Slow...)

[Chorus]

I wanna stay fresh
Forever like a baby do
Shatter dreams
Put it back together like Krazy Glue...

I wanna stay fresh
Forever like a baby do
Shatter dreams
Put it back together like Krazy Glue...

I wanna stay fresh
Forever like a baby do
Shatter dreams...
Put it back together like Krazy Glue...
Like Krazy Glue, like Krazy Glue
Like Krazy Glue...

[Verse 2]

They say I changed for the worse
But I'm still the same Kaz...
Stained gauze on my chest
When the witch tore my heart
Beg your pardon, I was wrong
For trying to put it in a song
All along messing up my head
Now I'm glad you're gone...
Move along got a grocery list full of flaws
Check 'em off..
I'm not supposed to be, close to perfect
Aren't we all?
Slightly crazy by default, ish I talk to walls
Ever since a toddler, still shitting in my drawls
Let me pause for a second, yeah!
Soak the record up, Scotty like a wizard
When it comes to flipping samples up
Beats shake the ground
Like an elephant that trampled up (Yeah)
With me up on the back, like a Muay Thai champion
(Yeah)
Invade your space and beyond
With the face of a chameleon
See me on my Ohm hype
(Ohh-ma)
Moving like I got Shiva arms, When I hold mics
Other on a peace pipe
Other peacing suckers like, not tonight
You won't catch me slipping
Even if I walk on ice, talk the right slickness
I could waltz up in the white gates
You see the window shaking, with the right bass
Might taste like a slice of heaven...

With the right cake, slide like a frozen lake
Write a couple flows a day
Hoping it'll pay...
Stay fresh, like it was my born day
Make 'em all stay fresh
Make 'em all stay fresh, fresh
Like a head lettuce
(Yes, yes)

[Chorus]
I wanna stay fresh
Forever like a baby do
Shatter dreams...
Put it back together like Krazy Glue...

I wanna stay fresh
Forever like a baby do
Shatter dreams...
Put it back together like Krazy Glue...

I wanna stay fresh
Forever like a baby do
Shatter dreams..
Put it back together like Krazy Glue...

Like Krazy Glue, like Krazy Glue...
