(Aye, aye, gotta let me in, I been real good, gotta let me in man, Please, been real good, you gotta let me in)

(Yeah)

[Verse 1]

He said aye, take it easy okay?

You're little late, and by the way you had a great run Enough to brag for the next coming, but before you go fly (Go fly)

Make sure, when you step inside the next one, you open your eyes

So all things that you soaked in this life, and not forgotten

Even after all the moments, when you smoked on a pipe (Yeah)

Suppose I told you that I know how your story goes, and how it ends

To be continued, dot dot, on a continuum

I know you gotta pseudonym, for your alter ego

And I feel that its really suiting em, I'm seeing dead people walking

Thru the streets

Like it's Para-legal, I mean Para abnormal, take it back to the portal

See the rats and the seagulls, eating trash like it's cordial

And roaches in the garbage, tryna trash my vocals Kosher like some salt that give you high blood pressure And it ain't your fault; you make em feel like a lesser man

Take all your lesson in, and then turn it into music

So it's easy for people, to remember them, give it to your children

And your kids children, and live your life, like you see the Light, on the other end

(On the other end, on the other end)

[Chorus]

Let me in, let me in, till the rest of them

Do me one good and look after my children (Children, let me in, children, let me in, children, let me in,
Children, let me in)

Do me one good and look after my children
(Children, let me in, children, let me in, children, let me
in,
Children, let me in)

[Verse 2]

Peace and love be with you son (Yeah) Take good care of your sister and mother; look I had a good run (Uhh huh)
Can't complain I change the way, zombies looking at life
And put a heart inside a monster, with no use of a knife I just brought back life, to a place where it's most needed (Yeah)
Put faith back inside the people, who don't believe it (uhh)
Through the speaker, I will always speak to you (Speak to you)
And you will never be lost, if you seeking the truth (No)
You see your pops in your reflection; I see it in you (I know)
Same eyes, same complexion and the things that we do
Use to spit something vicious, I see you a beast too
Be cool, respect the universe, you know how we do More importantly be true to yourself, don't let em step on you
You got a bullet spirit, that's made of Teflon (Yeah)
On the higher echelon, philistines stoop, to a pigeon coup, Something you should never do Remember son, I bled the truth for you, so you don't ever have to run (No)
Bled the truth for you (Uhh uhh)
So you don't ever have to run son (Let em know, stand up like a man)
[Chorus]
Let me in, let me in, till the rest of them
Do me one good and look after my children
(Children, let me in, children, let me in, children, let me
in,
Children, let me in)

Do me one good and look after my children
(Children, let me in, children, let me in, children, let me
in,
Children, let me in)

[Verse 3]

Dear father, thanks for all the scrolls, that you've given me

Took me a while to realize, that you live in me, looked into the sky

And I didn't see you visually, but I felt your presences on every

Level spiritually

I know at times, I curse you up and down, and the moment you never spoke

Were the most profound, I found hope, when I almost drown, thought you

Weren't around

Almost blacked out, but that's when I heard a sound, that's when I came around

On track banging out, my heart and my soul, so you know they gotta play it now

They love the way I sound, can't front or hate it now, I cleared the slate

So back up, while I lay it down, one time I break it down, sunshine

Erase the clouds

Pride of a lion, its no wonder why they hate the crown

I take it down myself, and come back weightless,

This is the one track, defining my true greatness, this is my one path

At last I made it, I waited so long, so bad I could taste it

Now I'm here (Yeah, yeah, now I'm here, gotta let me in, gotta let me

In, gotta let me in)

(Aye yo)

Let me in, let me in, till the rest of them

Do me one good and look after my children

Aye I remember him, he was my brother in, whatever happen to cutty

You were the best of friends, ohh I'm get it, sorry I didn't mean to mention him

But on the brighter side, I saw your mother entering

On the outside, looking in on the voyagistic Been on a voyage, now I'm back Now you missed it, you missed it, missed it, miss
