This life is out of your hands
You've lost your grip
Your holding sands

Finding you don't fit the mold
When the other blocks fit so easily
Wishing you were a square
Spearmint gum in your tangled hair

This life is out of your hands
You've lost your grip
Your holding sands

Finding you don't fit the mold
wishing you were a square
spearmint gum in your tangled hair

We are only plastic
our lives quite fantastic
We are only plastic
our lives quite fantastic
We are only plastic

We fit like puzzle pieces bouquet of chocolate recess Now you have one choice to make Which mission do you want to take Do you want to take
Do you want to take
Do you want to take
