There was a time
When you stayed with me
But when you're gone
I cried but you felt fine

I knew it all along
I miss the time you're always there
I knew it all along

There was a time
When you stayed with me
But when you're gone
I cried but you felt fine

I knew it all along
I miss the time you're always there
I knew it all along
Save me

My world is falling down
Can't you see every day I cry?
When you're not around
Save me

My world is falling down
Can't you see every day I cry?
When you're not around

Right alone
You can't let go

Right alone
You can't let go

Right alone
You can't let go

Right alone
Save me

My world is falling down
Can't you see every day I cry?

When you're not around
Save me

My world is falling down
Can't you see every day I cry?
When you're not around
Save me
