Love, Love, Love, Love

It's not like I've never been hurt
I can't count the times I've been wrong
I know how it feels to be broken
I haven't found the one that's perfect But God knows I've been so close And that's what keeps me hoping

And I don't know how to hold back
I don't know how to slow down
I don't need doubts to come and bring me down

You say I'm just a fool for always falling, always falling, say my heart won't last if it keeps
falling,
always falling yeah yeah
If loves a drug I need it Just like a rush gotta feel it never wanna stop believing as long as I'm alive I'm dreaming love love love

So I close my eyes and jump in before I measure the fall Can't get enough of that feeling and i still want the fairytale ending I never settle for this what good is living with regrets

you say I'm just a fool for always falling,
always falling, say my heart won't last if it keeps
falling,
always falling yeah yeah
If loves a drug I need it
Just like a rush gotta feel it
never wanna stop believing
as long as I'm alive I'm dreaming love

I don't know how to hold back
I don't know how to slow down
I don't need doubts to come and bring me down

Yu say I'm just a fool for always falling, always falling, say my heart won't last if it keeps
falling,
always falling yeah yeah
If loves a drug I need it Just like a rush
never wanna stop believing long as I'm alive I'm dreaming love love love
