Coming over cloudy again
As I sit here in the den
Playing my guitar and writing
A candle beside me for lighting

C/G Bb C/G Bb

As I sit here and I look outside
My mind takes me on a ride
Watching rain down the window pane
Thinkin' 'bout you once again

When I think of you
Things are no longer blue
You wash away the pain
Just like the pouring rain

The power of God on display
Brought on by skies turned grey
A natural light show
For all to see
I wish you were here to see it with me

When I think of you
Things are no longer blue
You wash away the pain
Just like the pouring rain

Wild winds blow and trees fall
Swaying as if nothing at all
I hear footsteps inward bound
And see you as I turn around

When I think of you
Things are no longer blue
You wash away the pain
Just like the pouring rain
