Point me at the sky, let this love die
Call my name now, call my soul, now
No more pain, no more tears
Lift me up, now; into golden sun, into golden sun
Bathing in the haze, Bathing in the haze
Into golden sky, Into golden sky

When was it ever a dream, When was it ever a dream
When was it ever, it's over
When was it ever a dream
When was it ever a dream
Was it ever, it's over;
This love is over

(Counterpoint)

I never thought that these dark clouds would pass over
me
Now it's all over

Point me at the sky, let this love die
No more pain, no more tears, now
Lift me up, show me the sky
Into golden sun, into golden sun
Bathing in the haze, Bathing in the haze

Into golden sky, Into golden sky
When was it ever a dream
When was it ever a dream
When was it ever, it's over
When was it ever a dream
When was it ever a dream
When was it ever, it's over
This love is over

(Counterpoint)

I never thought that these dark clouds would pass over
me
Now it's all over end
