Twenty five years on the planet
I guess I just dont understand it
These things we live and die for,
Lie, cheat and sacrifice for.
Spend everything we got before we get it
Yeah, we living so over the limit
Show me a heart thats true!
Boy, I got one for you
But now youre walkin out on me
And its full of dust thats big
They tell you that its over, but its never over!

Chorus:

If you wanna face it on your own
Baby its cold outside, its cold outside
Whatever youll find I hope its gold
Cause baby its cold outside, its cold outside
And youll remember my love, youll remember my love
Might not always be here,
Heres where you make me so cold!

I cant wait til you come back, calling
I cant wait til you come back balling
I was never this full of spite
But the pain obscures the light, ilt obscures the light
So I put on my glasses
But my heart is so full of car crashes
So I take off my glasses (long gone)
Now youre walkin out on me, but I dont really wanna see
They tell you that youre over before youre even over!

Chorus:

But if you wanna face it on your own
Baby its cold outside, its cold outside
Whatever youll find I hope its gold
Cause baby its cold outside, its cold outside
And youll remember my love, youll remember my love
Might not always be here,
Heres where you make me so cold!

We should be getting closer,
Protect each other like were supposed to, yeah!
But instead Im seeking closure
I hope youre, hope

Chorus:

If you wanna face it on your own
Baby its cold outside, its cold outside
Whatever youll find I hope its gold
Cause baby its cold outside, its cold outside!
If you wanna face it on your own
Baby its cold outside, its cold outside
Whatever youll find I hope its gold
Cause baby its cold outside, its cold outside!
And youll remember my love, youll remember my love
Might not always be here,
Heres where you make me so cold!
