It's a party of my charade
To keep all others of my day
A page in time goes both ways
The party has just begun, please stay

You can be mine when the dream hits play
Dancing close when the dream hits play
Three minute affair when the dream hits play
Closed reality when the dream hits play

My false smile hides a secret
Controls the thought where the trouble begins
Hey, I need you for the night
It will stop when the dream hits play

That three minute fantasy for our gaze
It can't last, sorry you have to pay
'Cause the secret that I hide
[Incomprehensible], as I wave goodbye

You can be mine when the dream hits play
Dancing close when the dream hits play
Three minute affair when the dream hits play
Closed reality when the dream hits play

As I wave goodbye, I think that dumb
To jeopardize my life to be her mate
That three minute fantasy for tonight
But what can I say

Looking for another when the dream hits play
I'm not real when the dream hits play
Sure I'm yours when the dream hits play
But I am the loner after the dream hits play
