Standing through an open door way, sick feeling out of place
People walking by ignore me, I want to turn and run away
So I turn and away
I close my eyes, and I disappear from here to
My sanctuary, my hide away, my secret window
Nobody can see me when I disappear into my place
My complications, my fantasies, my destinations
Never going to let you get into my head it's my
Sanctuary
You think that you can understand me,
You think you got me figured out
How could you when you never listen?
You don't know what I'm about
Don't you know I tune you out
I'm far away, to a place where you can't go
You know it's

My sanctuary, my hide away, my secret window
Nobody can see me when I disappear into my place
My complications, my fantasies, my destinations
Never going to let you get into my head it's my?
Sanctuary
I , I oh oh oh I, I oh oh oh
Go ahead and try and fool me with you lies,
I escape in to shadows of my mind to
My sanctuary, my hide away, my secret window
Nobody can see me when I disappear into my place
My complications, my fantasies, my destinations
Never going to let you get into my head it's my
My sanctuary, my hide away, my secret window
Nobody can see me when I disappear into my place
