May it rain on you forever
We are all alone together
Crippled by selective memory
Choose which lie to believe
One man heartstring tug-of-war
The more I love the more you leave
I hate you with all my heart
Counting on the law of threes
Fool me once, shame on you
Fool me twice, shame on me
There's something not right that can't be made right
Everything in focus now
Gag and vomit at the sight
It seems you've forgotten about the gifts I had to give
If this is the case, perhaps I'll forget to forgive
I hate you with all my heart
Counting on the law of threes
Fool me once, shame on you
Fool me twice, shame on me
