(I bled like a leech because I was so attached)
This sin in my heart will tear us apart
Theres sin in my heart
Love will tear us apart
Happiness is solitude
When theres no one left to depend on
I walked a thousand miles through your lies
And so will you, so will you?

Kill me Tell me
Everything falls apart
Kill me Tell me
Try and break this cold heart
Kill me Tell me
You thought it would never end
Kill me Tell me
When we meet again
