The colours of your hair
Softer than brown
Moving in polite November skies

Feel you in my heart
Touch you in my dreams
Stay with me 'til time itself turns round on us again

Burning slowly
Spend the night together
Let the North wind colour the sky

In the waking
With all that is my heart
I will look into your eyes
To the green grass of Heaven

In the waking
Of everything so far
I will look into your eyes

In the waking
Of everything inside
I will look into your eyes
To the green grass of Heaven

And we'll walk this road together
Sheltered under the ones that brought us' arms
Oh, we won't be here forever

In the waking
Of everything inside
I will look into your eyes
Look into your eyes
