Hey, men of war
Raise your silver shields
And catch the starlight there
Hey, the king returns
The promise is fulfilled
The blood of Numenor
Hey, Elendil's sword
Piercing the light of Rohan
To smash the blackest tower

Hey, blackened skies
We steady our hearts
We run into the night
Hey, men of steel
The fire in your eyes
To burn the darkest night
Hey, men of hope
The point of no return
The floodgates open wide
Hey, the king returns
