Hello
Are you drowning deep inside?
Does it make you want to cry?
All the words we said, were they meaningless like the time we spent
We've built this house of lies, and I'll tear it down in spite of the times we had all the good and bad and it makes me want to scream

[chorus]
So wave goodbye to your old life cause we built this house on broken dreams
we locked the keys inside Take your plans and say we tried
cause we built this house on broken dreams
we locked the keys inside

Hello
I've listened to your lies and I wrote this down in spite of the times we had all the good and bad and it makes me want to scream

[chorus]

rupture this, i wont close my eyes and follow you fracture that, i'm doing everything i wanted to [repeat 1x]

[chorus]
Can we lock the keys inside
Can we lock the keys inside
