featuring Aretha Franklin

[Mary]

Lately I? ve got this funny feeling
Something don? t feel the same
But he? s telling me I? m the one to blame
Yes I know he still gives me good loving
But when he? s deep inside
There? s somebody else on his mind

1 [Aretha]Don? t waste your time
[Mary] But it gets so hard to know
[Aretha]Just walk away
[Mary] You say that I got to let go
[Both] Seen it a millions times before
[Aretha]You shouldn? t take his stuff no more
[Mary] Can? t waste my time
[Aretha]Girl it? s not hard to know
[Mary] Should walk away
[Aretha]Oh you? ve got to let it go
[Both] Seen it a millions times before
[Mary] Shouldn? t take his sh no more

[Aretha]
Sister girl, sister girl
It? s much deeper than what you? re thinking
When something don? t feel the same
Yeah you better believe his love has change
(And I have been telling you, telling you)
And what you? re telling me
(It? s been hurting me, hurting me)
It ain? t, it ain? t complete
He? s got a sweetie on the side
Stop making truth, out of his lies

Repeat 1

[Aretha & Mary]
What? s the point of love
When you got no trust
What? s the point of staying
When you seen enough

What? s the point of giving
What he don? t deserve

[Mary]
He don? t deserve it
No you don? t deserve it

[Aretha]
Oh what? s the point of feeling

[Aretha & Mary]
Like there? s nothing inside
What? s the point of saying
That you still got your pride
What? s the point of giving
What he don? t deserve
This is the last time
I? m gonna love you
