Lie back and dream of me
Red death to set you free
We turn the screws to make you die
Soft flesh and razor blades
Golgotha, ace of spades
Steel needles kiss your pretty eyes
All mine, all mine
Black night, moonshine
All mine, all mine
Nightmare, the dreamtime

Black terror stalks the night
Claws to clutch and fangs to bite
A dark and faceless crawling fear
Despair, you can't resist
Now fear the lizard's kiss
The reptile hisses in your ear
All mine, all mine
Black night, moonshine
All mine, all mine
Nightmare, the dreamtime

Dead voices speak through me
Of things that should not be
The prince of wounds, the lord of flies
Evil within ourselves
We need nobody else
We tell ourselves the best of lies
All mine, all mine
Black night, moonshine
All mine, all mine
Nightmare, the dreamtime
Nightmare, the dreamtime
