You said good looks were hard to find
And I aint had no luck with mine
And you were ready to depart
And set calamity in my heart

I should've known a mind like yours
That opens wounds and closes doors
Would disappoint me from the start
And set calamity in my heart

Oh calamity, oh calamity, oh calamity in my heart
Oh calamity, oh calamity, oh calamity we're apart

Nine lives are not enough for some
But I feel quite at home with one Cause time moves slow and the days are dark
When there's calamity in your heart

Oh calamity, oh calamity, oh calamity in my heart
Oh calamity, oh calamity, oh calamity we're apart

Now and then I like to sit in my house & lay my dreams on the floor & stick my head in the clouds, as long as time allows
And now and then I like to bury my mind beneath a mountain of gloom to make it harder to find, as long as I'm inclined, we'll I don't mind...

Oh calamity, oh calamity, oh calamity in my heart
Oh calamity, oh calamity, oh calamity we're apart
