Underneath those city lights I'm gonna dream about
you every night
And inbetween those city dreams I'm gonna find out just what lonely means
But I wasn't made to be, holed up in the country
And I wasn't made for sitting still, I never could and I never will...I never will Underneath those city stars I'm gonna find out just what troubles are

And underneath that city sun I'm gonna find my luck's gone on the run
But I wasn't made to be, holed up somewhere quietly
And I wasn't made for sitting still I never could and I never will...I never will

And if you wait for me you know I'll be back presently, just like I've never been away And if you stick around I'll come back here and buy this town...I'll buy you coffee anyway whoa la la la la

you every night
And inbetween those city dreams I'm gonna find out
just what lonely means
But I wasn't made to be, holed up somewhere comfortably
And I wasn't made for sitting still, I never could and I never will, I never will, oh I never will no, I never will...Well I never.
