Nan an na na na na na na nana na na naaaa hey hey hey hey hey hey hey hey heeey

I really like this boy and I hope he likes me
It is weird though for thee
Some may say stalker
Some may say freak
But as I stand in the altar
I think to myself
Just to give up
But I don't
I don't give up

CAUSE given up is for quitters and I may just be me
And I ain't a quitters
And quitters ain't for me
But they just walk on
Just like a quitter
So don't you see
And I ain't a quitters
And quitters aren't for me

So as I sit at home just feedin my baby
I think to myself as my husband is late
He might abuse me
Cause he's late from the bar
I don't think that I am a quitter cause that ain't fo' me

CAUSE given up is for quitters and I may just be me
And I ain't a quitters
And quitters ain't for me
But they just walk on
Just like a quitter
So don't you see
And I ain't a quitters
And quitters aren't for me
