Got it all figured out inside of my head
There's a bag packed up at the foot of my bed
Time to leave. I can't watch her as she dies.
We'll cover our tracks, tell a couple white lies
Like she's going strong, we'll put up a fight
And by the time they catch on, we'll be outta their sight
Long gone

Let's get out of here
I can't deal with her tears
We've gotta get out. I can't handle this
We won't ever be found. They won't miss
Baby, let's just get out of here

Don't need directions, they can't tell us where Forget about it. Let the wind mess with your hair
We'll find a way to make the time pass
Though she's in pain, our trip is kick ass
Stars all aligned in a runaway sky
Holding my hand as the miles roll by
Long gone

Let's get out of here
I can't deal with her tears
We've gotta get out of here. I can't handle this
We won't ever be found. They won't miss
Baby, let's just get out of here

If we leave tonight and drive fast enough
All of our troubles will be just like us
Long gone

She's still in bed, dying so slow
She doesn't know where we're gonna go
She knows we are leaving but doesn't hold on She knows she won't make a move. And now we're gone
Long gone
