Tell me tell me tell me tell me what we're gunna do
Tell me tell me tell me tell me what we're gunna do

Now im on a new high new day new girl shes too fly, i thought her levels were too high i was too shy, now we fly first class to do right , i never had the time to fall in love more like the type to fall in lust, but i might change the distance like us, i love this girl and trust an im jus so into her i jus love seeing her bares girls are similar bt its so different maybe one day we'll have a familiar, im wasted on the other line, an i know you understand me and i understand you too thats my word so im through

(Tinchy) Tell me tell me that there aint no1 or one day he'll come back there it goes heartache,one way speeding about in the fast lane first im here then im gone like one, we do wish i could spend more times music tryna stack p's for the future i can still see you in my future stick by me i wanna stick to my pride, tell me tell me if not im beggin you lowe me save it for later bell me, right now im in focused mode next year beatside open toes, these are the time i need you near, its in the past leave it there trust when i say your part of the plan, trust i know im the man with the plans.

(Slix) lately ive felt so cold as two of my chicks been long, and what i need is to be assured that me and you can still travel this world, my backs tired from carrying its long, i know i did wrong girl and i wanna know if you feel the same as you did around the time after our very first kiss, i would roll with her strokin her i felt so close and at home with her and all my love had a good hold with her cause she told me when i was alone with her but now all i hear is tell me boo but you should know i aint gunna spell it for you, i know i love you is what you wanna hear but you aint gota pressure me through my ears sayin...

Tell me tell me tell me tell me what we're gunna do
Tell me tell me tell me tell me what we're gunna do

So seleeka what ya say tell me again, im a fully grown man i aint on playin games, if your not on what im on then im gone cause its long you better start actin your age lord of the mic's i did clash with rage, but i aint got time to do the same with you babes why you walking away hypin all live shoutin my name, so i heard that your in it for the fame, that plans gunna earn you a little bad name your peng but a slag damn oh what a shame seems like these days girl are all the same choong but loose but dont have a brain but im not gunna complain if thats what your on then thats what your on but one day its gunna come back in your face.

Tell me tell me tell me tell me what we're gunna do

i know that i disregarge you quite alot i fort we was hard to break up like a rock, i know that i broke your heart you feel to rott, hurting 24/7 around the block an i got clocked though i feel stupid, we planned to buy a house an have 2 kids i flopped it all now i feel useless im so sorry you had to go through this, im so confused where do i stand cause i still wanna put a ring on your hand we can fly abroad and lie in the sand cause i swear down girl your part of my plan, i get tempted easily that girl was nuffin but breeze to me all in my head nuttin but freeze to me your the one that i want your a queen to me.

Tell me tell me tell me tell me what we're gunna do
Tell me tell me tell me tell me what we're gunna do
Tell me tell me tell me tell me what we're gunna do
Tell me tell me tell me tell me what we're gunna do
