In the morning
She gone crazy
With a painted picture
Her father's story

Bone China
My friends
Bone China
Let the summer come again

I said oh, oh, she be dancing by the moonlit sky
I'm talkin' to you
Oh, oh, she be drinking all my early times
Oh, oh, she be movin' like a butterfly

I'm just waiting on that dream
Because the fast ones always ride for free

Ugly morning
She's a Jezebel's daughter
She's like a Brunnhilda
A child of the water

Bone China
My friends
Bone China
Let the summer come again

I said oh, oh, she be dancing by the moonlit sky
I'm talkin' to her
Oh, oh, she be movin' like a butterfly, sting like a bee
Oh, oh, she be shaking like a girl from shine
Oh, oh, she be moving like a
She be moving like a, half a lookin' like a

I'm just waiting on that dream
'Cause the fast ones, always ride for free
I'm just waiting on that dream
'Cause the fast ones, the fast ones always ride for free
