I cut myself to watch it bleed
Nobody understand on how I feel
They say cuttings over raided
But life's so hard to go through
With nobody to help you

I cut myself to watch it bleed
Seeing the blood run down my wrist
I don't feel the pain
My depression worsens
As the cuts get deeper
But you would not understand

Your only a one sided UN open minded
Fool
The pain goes away with every cut I make
Now you see why I bleed now
You get why I hate this life

I cut myself to watch it bleed
And the pain I feel inside subsides
For awhile nobody loves me and am
All alone so I cut myself to watch me bleed
